

Dato' Haji Hashim Bin Haji Roshidi is the eighth Mayor of Ipoh. He was elected as Mayor of Ipoh on 23rd July 2008. He was born on December 25th 1955 in Kg. Singkir Darat, Bidong, Kedah Darul Aman. Datuk Haji Roshidi had received his early education in the Sekolah Kebangsaan Singkir, Merbok High School, and at Bidong High School before continuing his education to the Universiti Sains Malaysia in 1993 and has earned a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science. He has worked at the Public Service in October 1975 as a Clerical Officer in the Office of the State Government of Penang. Later he was appointed Assistant Investigation Officer Anti-Corruption Agency of Malaysia in Kuala Lumpur on 16th November 1978. He held various positions such as Assistant Secretary of the Government Procurement Management Division at the Ministry of Finance Malaysia, Assistant Director of the Economic Planning Unit in the Office of the Secretary of State, Special Assistant to the Chief Minister of Perak, Special Secretary to Chief Minister of Perak and as Secretary of the City Council Ipoh before he became the eighth Mayor of Ipoh.